

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

Vol. 2, No. 1, 1897. Published by the Breckenridge News Co.,

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1897.

SIX PAGES

By Secretary Carlisle has located in New York city.

This month is beginning to free itself of the yellow fever.

This farmer ought to improve the roads as much as possible. It will increase the value of his lands fifty per cent.

ESTIMATES made by the government stations of the United States and Austria-Hungary place the deficiency in the world's wheat supply for this year at 392,000,000 bushels. It is claimed that the outlook is for better supply next year.

This lesson to be gathered from the result of the election, in this county, this year, is that the Democrats should stay clear of a fusion in the future. They never made a greater blunder when they agreed to go under the clapped hands device. Hereafter the party should have a straight Democratic ticket or nothing.

Where at the threshold of an unemployed era of prosperity in the sheep industry. Never in the country's history have the prospects been so bright for the shepherd as at present. Sheep pay and pay well. They add to the fertility of the farm. They clean up rough land. They yield large profits. They give three crops over year, lamb, wool, mutton. They earn their own living, and if given an opportunity will feed themselves. Let every farmer keep a flock of sheep and he will be rewarded for his prudence and enterprise.

HARDINBURG.

SIX PAGES.

Passenger Daily car, Hardinburg, 7:37 a.m.

SIX PAGES.

Passenger Daily car, Hardinburg, 11:35 a.m.

Miss Ella Dillon is visiting at Cancellation.

Mrs. Byrner went to Cloverport last Friday.

What the K-publians did for us was a plenty.

Farmers should begin to save their seed corn.

McAvitt went to Union Star last Saturday to visit his parents.

Geo. Naff will take the public sale at Geo. P. Duncan farm Nov. 17.

James St. Clair and wife, Webster, were visiting here last week.

Mr. Mooreman, of Glendean, was the only Democratic magistrate in the county Tuesday.

The new board of trustees should make it their business to restore the street lights.

Naturalization papers were granted Charles Booth in the County Court last week.

Sewing machine oil, needles, stiches, bands, oil cans, screw drivers, etc., call on T. C. Lewis.

It will be an accommodation to us if the people here will give us the names of their visitors.

Mrs. Luby, of Gosham, and her sister, of Vine Grove, were here last week visiting Mrs. R. H. McGuffin.

Clauie Mercer went to Louisville last week to try and effect a compromise with the creditors of the Banker.

Minor complaint, of Garfield, bought in a lot of five wineapples last Saturday, that sold for 50 cents per bushel.

Morris Kadrige went to Rockport, Ind. last Saturday to investigate the killing of his nephew, young Butler of Rockport.

Look on the big road between Hardinburg and Ben T. Miller's, about two miles away, a gray dove came—Wm. Miller.

D. H. Murray was at the Lennin hotel last Wednesday. He thinks Democrats should go to work and organize the party in every district.

Last week we received two copies of the Farmer's Home Journal. Good enough as we have to look after a hundred and fifty acre farm next year.

The Presiding elder, Rev. Overton, will preach at the M. E. church Sunday, next Friday night. He will go out to the quarterly meeting at Ephraim Saturday morning.

Bill Henley will accept the rooster under the device, but says he'll be hanged if he likes to mix his vote up with the hawes, old lickity wags and things like that.

Democrats are still Democrats, but they won't take a mixed ticket worth a cent. It will well enough to admit the fact. The officers of this county assembly affirm that they never saw so many crows in a ballot in all their lives.

The conaulator will sell the Cloverport Brick Plant and several tracts of land off the Belvoir farm, and two houses and lots in this town, at the Court House door next Monday. Also the Fawcett land near Chensault.

The meeting of the teachers association in this district last Saturday, was made quite interesting by several lively discussions among them. One was "How to employ an idle pupil." This seemed to be an old subject to them, but they got on to it pretty lively for a while. Prof. Logan, Harmon, Cokes and others took part in the discussion. After the meeting a county organization was formed, and the first meeting will be held at the M. E. church, county seat, at 10 o'clock, on the fourth Saturday in the month.

If wheat keeps up to one dollar a bushel next year some of the farmers around here will be in it pretty largely. Arch Coleman has put 120 acres. Bill Williams about 200, the DeJarnett boys about 300. All over the county the average is not uncommonly large.

The Democrats who have come into town since the election attribute our defeat to the Fusion ticket. There was also a lack of organization, but in the future they declare that the fight must be made under the rooster on a straight ticket.

Licensed to marry: O. C. Shirewberry to Cora Cashman, Wm Preston to Lucy A. Johnson, Wm. R. Sanders to Ida Gaddis, Louis Hamilton to Mary J. Kennedy, Wm. Young to Addeline Hutton, Barn D. Haynes to Cordelia Lawson, J. R. Bland to Winnie Sullivan, Wesley Davis to Louisa Whitworth, Kara Hines to Harriet A. Morgan.

For silvers, specialties, jewelry, watches, clocks, strings for all kind of musical instruments and have all of your repairs done first class, bring your work. My shop is equipped with all necessary tools and machinery to give perfect satisfaction. Your Jeweler T. C. Lewis

Quit coughing is easy enough if you know how to do it. The best way to quit it is to take one dose of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey. Summer cough, lung congestion, winter cough, bronchial cough or any kind of cough or cold is speedily cured by the use of this remedy. Children love it. O. D. people like it.

GLENDEAN.

Roy Cain, Irvington, was here Monday.

John Deane went to Louisville Monday.

Eli Storm, McDaniels, was here the latter part of last week.

Miss Irene Board joined the party at D. C. Mooreman's Sunday.

Mr. Dave Howard and his son, Styles, were in Cloverport Saturday.

Robertson Bros., of Louisville, with heavy stock shipments this week.

Mr. George Short and Miss Maria Watkins, of Cloverport, are visiting here.

Little Louise Mooreman, spent Saturday and Sunday with her cousin, Mary Peyton, Falls of Rough.

Miss Belle Pierpont returns this morning to her home in Hardin county, leaving a host of friends here.

Two of Hardinburg's fair daughters, Miss Lila Miller and Miss Ava Board, have been spending a few days with Miss Mary Mooreman.

The omission of Miss Ollie Hixson's name from the school report last week did her an injustice. She is a hard worker, student and I therefore regret the omission.

The open session of the Literary Friday night has been pronounced the most pleasing effort ever made in Glendean.

The girls reached the school in debate, the girls seemed perfection in their excellence, and the crowd was sent home laughing over the drill introduced here by Miss Board.

J. C. Berry, one of the best known citizens of Spencer, Mo., testifies that he read himself of the worst kind of troubles by using a few boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. He has been troubled with piles for over thirty years and had used many different kinds of medicine; but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did the work and he will verify this statement if any one wishes to write him.—Spencer & Hays.

ROCK VALE.

This country has been blessed with a good rain.

Miss Clara Hart is very low with consumption.

Lee H. Shreve is preparing to build a new house.

Wheel is looking well in this neighborhood at present.

Veal Matthews will get married Friday to Miss Rita in Grayson county.

Alton Clemens is moving his saw mill and still mill to the new site.

Miss Ellende Reharker and mother paid Miss Clara Hart a visit one day last week.

Farmers are busy gathering corn in this neighborhood. It is turning out about half a crop.

J. R. Todd has not gone to the election for many years until this time, he made his appearance at the polls.

From the way Bud Huff is hauling in house furniture there is surely going to be a wedding in the neighborhood.

E. T. Tate is repairing his house and doing his own work. Jim Loyd says he is a fine workman and wants to get him to finish his house.

The Republicans are rejoicing over the result of the election in this locality. The Democrats look a little down hearted but will soon live up again.

The election went off peacefully at this place with the exception of some drunk boys that drank too much hard cider. Both parties worked hard at this place for the candidates.

Ben Hoff, while trying to roll a log on the skidway, at his mill, met with a bad accident by getting his leg caught between two logs. No bones were broken but he will be laid up for sometime we fear.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, greatly stimulates the Liver and Kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improve the appetite, aid digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and health-giver. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at Short & Haynes' Drug Store.

DEATH OF F. J. FERRY.

Master Mechanic of The Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railway.

THE FUNERAL CEREMONIES.

Mr. Francis J. Ferry died last Thursday morning just at the dawn of day. His death removes from this community a valuable citizen, a devoted husband and a loving, indulgent father. His place will be hard to fill. Honest, conscientious, upright and honorable in all his dealings with his fellow man, ever ready and willing to lend a helping hand when called upon.

Mr. Ferry was to the time of his death Master Mechanic for the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railway Company with headquarters in this city. This position he held since the construction of the road and has rendered valuable services to the company. He knew his business and gave it his undivided attention.

Mr. Ferry was born at Villanova, Chautauque county, New York, Sept. 5, 1848 and was in his 50th year. He leaves a wife and six children, two of whom are married.

His funeral was one of the largest ever held in this city, being conducted by the Rev. T. J. Joiner at the Methodist church, of which he was a member. After the services at the church his remains were taken in charge by the Masons and borne to the Cloverport cemetery and there laid to rest under the beautiful ceremony of that order conducted by his friend and fellow workman, Mr. J. G. Harris, Master of the lodge, in the presence of a large concourse of people.

The floral designs were elaborate and appropriate. An engine and tender presented by the officials of the road. The employees at the shops gave a broken wheel and the engineers contributed a beautiful design as did many other flowers in appropriate designs.

The following are the resolutions of his lodge.

Francis J. Ferry was born at Villanova, Chautauque county, New York, on Friday September 5, 1848, and died at Cloverport, Kentucky, on Thursday, November 4th 1897. Thus began and ended, the life of a good citizen, an honorable man, a faithful husband, a kind and affectionate father.

Wisnaw, The Supreme Architect, has in his mind removed from this scene of his labors our brother, who became a Master Mason on the 30th day of May 1892, and who ever since he was so obligated has been a diligent workman, with plumb, square, level and trowel. Therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the Lodge be and they are, to wear a white ribbon in the lodge-room around which will linger the most reverent memory and the tenderest recollection, and that affection will always pay tribute to his name. The snail of our brotherhood will bear to those who come after us, the truest and most precious of all mementoes, a true Mason and a true man.

Resolved, That this Lodge tender to the widow and family, the sincere sympathy and assurance of each member that there is a full realization of the great reward that overclouds this life. Resolved, That the members of the Lodge wear the usual badge of mourning for a period of three months. The minutes of the resolutions published in the Masonic News Journal, The Clover Democrat and The Breckenridge News.

David R. Murray, Committee C. W. Mooreman, James Harris, W. M. M. Jungling, Secy.

Roll of Honor Cloverport High School.

The second month closed October 22, with this roll of honor based upon attendance, punctuality, deportment and daily recitation.

Walter Oates, Lyle Bollen, Irene Jarboe, Ruth Haynes, Willard Hamilton, Ed. Felsen, David May, Walford Gay, Ed. Wroe, Mabel Beavin, Edna Jarboe, Wearda Graham, Lila Newton, John Newton, Louise Bahng, Paul Lewis, Myrtle Barr, Rosa Fallow, Sue Ebert, W. J. D. Bahng, J. O. Graham, Marvin Tucker, Willie Hearn, McAniff Brown, Ray Hays, Carrie Hays, Margaret Moore, Sue Ebert, Gavock, Julia Wroe, Edith Popham, Myrtle Cunningham, Edward Hays, John Jarboe, Griffith Watkins, Robert Wilson, Otis Fallow, Orvie Perkins, Francis Beavin, Maude Carlyle, Alma Perkins.

Several others received the average necessary to have their names appear upon this honor roll, but were absent one or more days. We ask the parents to see that their children attend regularly.

C. F. CASHMAN, Principal.

Puny Children

Who would prescribe only tonics and bitters for a weak, puny child? Its muscles and nerves are so thoroughly exhausted that they cannot be whipped into activity. The child needs food; a blood-making, nerve-strengthening and muscle-building food.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-Liver Oil is all of this, and you still have a tonic in the hypophosphates of lime which is a powerful tonic for the blood. For this reason delicate children there is no remedy superior to it in the world. It means growth, strength, plumpness and comfort to them. Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion.

See, and Read, all Druggists.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

Prevent Pneumonia

Prevention is always better than cure, even when cure is possible. But so many times pneumonia is not cured that prevention becomes the natural act of that instinct of self-preservation which is "the first law of nature." Pneumonia can be prevented and is often cured by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

"Some years ago I had a severe cold and was threatened with pneumonia. I could neither eat nor sleep, and was in a wretched condition. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and took it according to the directions, and at the end of five days was well and sound as before the attack. I have recommended it in many cases of pneumonia since, and have never known it fail in effecting a cure."

JOHN HENRY, St. Joseph, Mo. "I was attacked with a cold that settled on my lungs, and ended the skill of my physicians so that they considered me incurable. At last I began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and was entirely cured after having taken two bottles."

FRANCISCO A. SEVERIANO, Taunton, Mass.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

is put up in half-size bottles at half price—50 cents.

BRANDENBURG.

Mr. J. R. Dowden was in Lewisport last week.

Brandenburg Normal will have a Thanksgiving entertainment.

Miss Lida Haynes is at home after an extended visit to friends in Ekron.

Miss Florine Anderson spent Saturday and Sunday at her home near Guston.

Mr. George Fyrmire spent last week in Breckenridge county with his mother.

Miss Agnes Worland has returned home, much to the delight of her friends.

Mrs. Morgan Fontaine was the guest of Mrs. George Fyrmire last week enroute to Louisville for a visit.

Mr. Henry Harrington showed me a handsome picture of Chas. Weaver, next Mayor of Louisville, which city is to be congratulated.

E. S. Foster, of Owensboro, spent Sunday with us at Dr. Fote's farm to Louisville. Ed is a fine business man and a whole soul, fine fellow.

Happy, tripe happy is Samuel Shackelford, who has so recently added laurels to his brow. He was invited to Dubois to share them with a Blumgras belle. He won on a silver ticket to secure a golden bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Martin, of Vine Grove, Mr. P. E. Mallin, Chicago, Rob. Malla, Owensboro, and Mrs. M. Tom Robinson and other relatives of Vine Grove attended the funeral of Mr. Mason Nicholson.

Our old down board was completely snowed under last Tuesday and the following citizens will bear witness the ermine, viz: E. F. Alexander, T. Simmons, Jas. Bland, J. C. Ashcraft and D. S. Richardson.

Mr. D. R. Murray's friends are much disappointed over his defeat, but he has the consolation of knowing old Meads stood to him like a Spartan. Had Mr. Murray been the nominee since he was first the tide might have gone differently. However, he always accepted defeat gracefully.

I spent Saturday and Sunday with my relatives, Dr. R. W. Fote and wife, near Rowletville. They have a pretty, cozy home where love and happiness are enshrined. Dr. Fote is one of the most progressive farmers in that section of the country and is conducting a first-class creamery most successfully. His stock and in fact every thing he handles is first-class. The name of his good wife has gone abroad for as a "gift-edged" woman. She has a fine taste in dress and drove over to Mrs. Piggett's to meet the "Hay View Circle," which charming group of wives make quite a little band assembled at her pretty home to read and discuss German literature. The topic this year is on that interesting country, "The Circle" is in perfect harmony and having the literary information the social features are much to be commended. Tea and a delicious light lunch were served. We truly had a "flow of soul" and a delightful taste from the cup that cheers but not lustrates. Long live "The Hay View Circle." The following ladies were present, viz: Mrs. Hays, Mrs. Can. Watkins, Miss Tyler, Mrs. John Wimp, Mrs. Dr. Fote, Mrs. Caine, (Golden), Ed. Miss Jolly, Miss Caine, Miss Lilly Melton, Miss Elva Harmond, Miss Johnson, Mrs. Lucy Heron.

One of the very saddest, most heart-rending deaths that has come to my knowledge for many years, in my circle of friends was that of Mason Melton, a handsome, intelligent, plume young business man, who died of pneumonia last Thursday and whose remains were brought to his old home for interment on Saturday. Mason was an exception when it came to lovely traits of character as a husband and father. He was the embodiment of all that goes to make a model one. He was reared here from early boyhood and received his education here till he was sent off to college. He served under Harrison's administration in a government position, engaged in business here till '96 when he embarked in the meat business, staple and fancy groceries in Owensboro. He was only ill a short time of typhoid fever. All that medical skill and kind friends could do could not stay the cruel agony that cut down a manly Christian man. He was a son of Mr. Neal Melton, of this place, and a devoted son of the church. He was a member of the old church by a Baptist. Minister from Owensboro. Mason was a devoted Baptist and a Sunday School member. He was a little boy that loved flowers on his coat and with a large concourse of friends followed him to his last resting place. One sister, Mrs. J. D. Black, died of a heart attack. He was a man who had raised him and who loved him. To all we extend sympathy—especially to the wife and little babe.

Prepare Yourself Dry... and Warm for the inclemencies of the season by purchasing for yourself something that will keep you

Dry... and Warm

and thereby save medicine and doctor's bills. Notice these items:

Mackintoshes from $2.50 to $6

Other stores get from $1 to $3 more for no better quality.

Rubber Shoes and Artics

for Men, Women and Children, ranging in price from

20c to $1.25

and right here let us remind you that these goods are of reliable makes and fresh from the factory.

Nothing old or carried over. Blankets and Comforts are now going very rapidly, and why not? Our prices make them move—for we Won't be Undersold.

Capes for the Ladies are the best selected in town and at such low prices that our city competitors are not in it with us. Come and see them.

Strictly One Price.

The Fair,

CLOVERPORT, KY. ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES

The Fair,

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES

The Fair,

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES

The Fair,

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES

CLOTHING

We begin to-day our Closing-Out Sale of MEN'S SUITS.

ALL

$12.50 to $16.50 Suits go at $10.00

$10.00 Suits go at $7.50

$8.00 Suits go at $5.00

$5.00 Suits go at $3.50

WEST'S

Closing-Out Sale Millinery

Having fully made up my mind to close out my entire stock of Millinery goods, I will from this date, November 8th until January 1st, make whether you need anything in this line or not. I have a full line of Hats, Feathers, Ribbons and Velvets. Now, while you need them, is the time to Take Advantage of the Great Bargains that will be offered you.

Prices That Will Induce You to Buy...

Mrs. H. V. Duncan.

FARMERS

Bring your Samples of Tobacco to Pace's Factory.

We are in the market and want to buy

J.B. Pace, Jr.,

Tobaccoist, CLOVERPORT, KY.

What's Better

WITH HOT BISCUITS?

Nothing Better

THAN Pure Open Kettle Molasses.

We Have 'Em.

50c Per Gallon.

Gregory & Gibson.

Remember that the only dry that will color your garments without filling them full of soap, blue vitriol, etc., is the famous Fawcett Dry. Remember that blue vitriol, copperas and other caustics ruin your goods and double the liability of rotting. Fawcett Dry is sold by W. E. Brown, Irvington. Quail will soon be upon the market.

IRVINGTON.

Plenty of rain and mud.
Miss Nellie Henry is visiting her sister at Ekron.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Gardner are at their friends in Watertown.
Miss Nora Henderson contemplates taking in the Chrysanthemum show.

Miss Myra Hanks and Nannie Lydian, of Webster, spent last Thursday p. m. with Miss Ada.
Mrs. Nannie Henderson was on the sick list last week. We hope to hear of her entire recovery soon.

Miss Charlotte Herndon is off for a visit to Litchfield friends, escorted by Miss Jean Harding, of Brandenburg.
Bob Jolly always secured us that he would visit and he did do it very handsomely. All glory to the Brackenridge.

Our little P. M. is off to see his girl this week. We searched in vain for an old shoe to fling after him, but alas!

Miss Ada Hanks was in Louisville Saturday and Sunday, returning to her school duties Monday.

Our town improves, the sound of the hammer and saw, the wails of the brass band, are unmistakable signs of our progressiveness. (7)

Our regrets to Mrs. (Irish) that we were absent when she made the little cake. Come again and give me the long coveted pleasure.

Bob Jolly once lived and was married in old Hardinburg and didn't get down town treat him most handsomely, her memory will always be sweet to us.

Sunday was unusually dull. The rain interfered with all religious worship, except the Methodist church, which at 3 p. m. Only a small attendance was present. A small Sunday school, with our excellent superintendent in attendance. Come out and see for yourselves.

Mr. Rodman with his bride have returned from their trip and are ready for the completion of their property. When finished it will be a little home and quite an improvement to our square. We extend congratulations and heartily welcome them as neighbors and fellow citizens.

Next Monday evening Bro. Henson, the new pastor of the Methodist church, will begin a series of meetings at this place. Let everybody come out and take an interest in the meetings, praying that much good may result. Our little town is not such a town as other little towns, yet we need a gracious outpouring of the Holy Spirit again.

Miss Worland after a prolonged stay owing to illness has returned to her home in Brandenburg. She is a bright girl and we rejoice with her in her entire recovery, owing no doubt to the care of our young M. D. and the tender care bestowed by the Misses C. and E. who are most excellent nurses as well as enterprising hosts.

The B. V. C. met Saturday p. m. but being neither a guest nor member am not able to give an account of its proceedings, but suppose of course a most delightful time was spent with Mrs. Pigot, whom all say is an "ideal hostess." By the way, I should like to do something for the "Columbia." Our interest is still strong in our offspring.

R. M. Jolly sends greetings with thanks and kind appreciation to his many friends in his senatorial race who would loyally follow him to the end. A tender feeling in the heart for each and all and a hope that none may ever have cause to regret having proven that loyalty does not lead to another, in which his wife joins with a hearty of gratitude.

The pride of Bob Jolly's heart was realized when he got the election result, his house, where he was born and raised it giving him an increase of 100 votes over last election. He was heard to exclaim: "May God ever bless and prosper my own people of Brackenridge district." The people soon found out that Bob and he are justly proud of them.

Master Embury Wreath has been the proud possessor of the badge given for most perfect lessons in school for the past five weeks. This week little Nannie Lee Jolly captures it from him. She is very proud of the fact, for we are sure Embury is hard to beat, yet she has succeeded by hard work and now he must watch his color or we predict our little Nannie Lee will hold him at bay for a while any way.

When your throat feels raw and rough as if you had reached the end of a map, nothing gives you so much relief as a little of Bull's Pine Tar Honey. A wonderful remedy for coughs, colds and bronchial affections. Pleasant to the taste, never failing in result. Get a bottle today.

Keeping Vegetables.

For the winter keeping of vegetables such as beets, turnips, potatoes, carrots, etc., place in a perfectly dark room as soon as removed from the ground. Store them in a cellar, there is nothing better than a good tight barrel with 3 in. of sand on top. Take any cheap material, old brass cans are best. In place the right side to well cover the top of the barrel, then put on the sand and the following spring you will find your vegetables as fresh and plump as when taken from the ground. Keep the cellar cool, but never take any chance of getting from frost. If there is the least danger of this, burn a few lamps, or better, a kerosene stove, all night is over. A great amount of success has been gained by stacking the barrels in three rows above the others. A. S. Smithwick, Meigs, Pa. and Home.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Young Buffalo for the Zoo—One View of the History of Kentucky has been a long time in the making.

It means that "the balance of power" is in the hands of the Democrats to stay.

The Democratic party has shown that it is in the majority, and the fight to control the destinies of the state. It has an overwhelming majority in the legislature, which gives it the power to legislate.

The public may rest assured that it will use the power to give the people good government, and to continue the rule of honesty and intelligence in the state for the future.

Gov. Bradley will only the only Republican governor in a half century. He will be succeeded by a Democrat. Senator DuBois will enjoy a like unique distinction as a political leader.

A Democratic senator to Lincoln may be elected—and his name will be Joe Blackburn. The people have had one taste of Republicanism in the state, and a full dose of it in Louisville, and it will take more than a year to take the party for them to so far forget it as to take risks on divisions again.

It is a fact that the Democratic party will mean one and the same thing, and the Democratic party will be accepted as the party law.

The occupation of the political trar between the lines is gone. The guerrilla tactics of the Democratic party have been absorbed by the one army or the other. The traitors have been dealt with according to the use of a war and shot with straight Democratic lead.

Blindness and confusion have been the result of the Democratic party. It can choose between Democracy and Republicanism. Parker's race ends the faction for which he stood, and it must likewise choose. Of course there is no need to prevent any faction as may be formed, but the beauty of it is that Democracy is stronger than all factions and the Republican party combined.

The election Tuesday is a test of the strength of the Democratic party. It will carry this time forward grow stronger, and in 1898 it will carry this state by 50,000 majority.

When 1900 comes all the money of the trust and corruption will not arrest its forward movement. Kentucky is reformed and her Democracy will hereafter stand like Gibraltar—a rock of inviolable strength—for the cause of the people.

One View of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

One view of Brackenridge Association. One view of Brackenridge Association.

Kentucky Gloriously Redeemed.

(From the Louisville Dispatch.)

The history of Kentucky has been a long time in the making.

It means that "the balance of power" is in the hands of the Democrats to stay.

The Democratic party has shown that it is in the majority, and the fight to control the destinies of the state. It has an overwhelming majority in the legislature, which gives it the power to legislate.

The public may rest assured that it will use the power to give the people good government, and to continue the rule of honesty and intelligence in the state for the future.

Gov. Bradley will only the only Republican governor in a half century. He will be succeeded by a Democrat. Senator DuBois will enjoy a like unique distinction as a political leader.

A Democratic senator to Lincoln may be elected—and his name will be Joe Blackburn. The people have had one taste of Republicanism in the state, and a full dose of it in Louisville, and it will take more than a year to take the party for them to so far forget it as to take risks on divisions again.

It is a fact that the Democratic party will mean one and the same thing, and the Democratic party will be accepted as the party law.

The occupation of the political trar between the lines is gone. The guerrilla tactics of the Democratic party have been absorbed by the one army or the other. The traitors have been dealt with according to the use of a war and shot with straight Democratic lead.

Blindness and confusion have been the result of the Democratic party. It can choose between Democracy and Republicanism. Parker's race ends the faction for which he stood, and it must likewise choose. Of course there is no need to prevent any faction as may be formed, but the beauty of it is that Democracy is stronger than all factions and the Republican party combined.

The election Tuesday is a test of the strength of the Democratic party. It will carry this time forward grow stronger, and in 1898 it will carry this state by 50,000 majority.

When 1900 comes all the money of the trust and corruption will not arrest its forward movement. Kentucky is reformed and her Democracy will hereafter stand like Gibraltar—a rock of inviolable strength—for the cause of the people.

To Cure Catarrh.

Do not depend upon emuls, inhalants or other local applications. Catarrh is a disease of the blood, and can be cured only by means of a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which thoroughly purifies the blood and removes the cause of the disease.

The great number of testimonials from those who have been cured of catarrh by Hood's Sarsaparilla prove the unequalled power of this medicine to cure all diseases of the blood.

Write for a free trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla, with catarrh give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial at once.

GUSTON.

Mrs. Charles Hedman, of Irvington, (nee Miss Loren Smith) is spending several days with her parents near Guston.

The Republic hereabouts are feeling "jolly" and are looking for the senatorial race to be a success. The good as far as the state is concerned.

Mr. Bush, paymaster on the L. H. & St. L., has purchased the depot building at this place, and his brother from the state of Michigan is about to move into this office now, having succeeded Mr. George Nell, former agent.

The county candidates had an appointment to speak at Big Springs just prior to the election, but didn't speak on account of the weather, and the good as far as the state is concerned.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec 10, 1896.

Messrs. E. V. Boas, I have used Ely's Cream Balm a number of years and find it works like a charm. It has cured me of many ailments and I can recommend it to all who are afflicted with rheumatism, neuralgia, etc.

"Hello, boys," he said as he met the vaudeville. "What you going to do?"

"Going to string him up!" somebody yelled.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

The judge smiled. His smile broadened. He seemed to attempt to conceal his mirth, and he was laughing a lot.

WOMAN AND FASHION.

Latest Styles in Evening Gowns. Popular with the fashion—having the eyes and makes the blood supply much better.